EDITOR's Message:

For this month, we have a number of NEW items to announce to you, as well as repeating from our March Newsletter, several upcoming events that you may want to attend as an ASHRAE member.

Since April was a slow news month, we have combined the months of April & May into this newsletter. However, I slipped up and forgot to notice that the ASHRAE Technology Awards are due June 1, and today is May 31. My apologies for this last minute fire drill, but if you have a submission that could be worthy of consideration of an ASHRAE Technology Award, please contact ASHRAE ASAP to let them know your intentions to make a submission. Talk to ASHRAE staff, but they might suggest alternates, such as submitting your project next year (due June 1, 2024). Again, my apologies!

Please take note of the Joint Region I, III & XI Dinner being held at the ASHRAE Annual Conference.

This is a no-miss event where you can network with all the key leaders of three - Count 'em THREE ASHRAE Regions!

Even better, I plan to be there too, so please look me up at the dinner where I'd love to hear what you think of this newsletter. All your thoughts & ideas are welcome - we are always open for improvements!

Yours in ASHRAE!

Members of the Region, if you have not yet donated to Research Promotion, I urge you to do so. Your contribution helps ASHRAE Society fund independent research that aids in advancing the arts and sciences of our built environment. If you have any questions, please contact your Chapter's RP Chair or Andy Manos the Regional Vice Chair for RP.

Lastly Region I's membership has been declining this Society year. I have tasked the Region's Membership Chairs to reach out and assisting delinquent members about possible different levels of membership within Society. If you have not had a chance to pay your dues yet I encourage you to do so as this a great value for your career. In doing so gains you access to a 52,000-member network, ASHRAE handbook, standards, and AII Learning courses.

Lastly, I want to acknowledge and say thank you for all you do in ASHRAE.

Cordially,

Steve Sill

Region I Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)

Catching up with DEI in Region I:

As we start to become more aware of the subject of DEI and incorporating this into our day-to-day activities within ASHRAE and beyond, think for a moment about what types of barriers might exist for current and future ASHRAE members. They may be due to location, financial, time constraints, disability... the list may go on. How can you help remove those barriers? This is one of the many thought provoking practice points available through the new DEI training videos that have become available on the society website. Some of these are lengthy, but they are a very good resource to review and pick up some ideas on how you can improve your local chapter to make all it has to offer more accessible.

For those who didn't know, there is also a list of distinguished lecturers available that present on non-technical topics; including some that would fall within the DEI category. Although meetings are coming to a close for this year, keep these in mind for upcoming chapter planning meetings for a DEI focused session for members.

I would love to hear from each chapter about anything they have done this past year to start compiling a resource for other chapters to share any relevant information on types of events, presentations that were well received, etc. I'll be reaching out to those listed in the CIQ, but please feel free to email me any notes or photos as well.

Thank you to all of those chapters who have already started their DEI committees and have filled in their CIQ (Chapter Information Questionnaire) accordingly. As of now, we have five chapters who have assigned a committee chair; Boston, New Jersey, New York, Central New York City, and Rochester. If you have a DEI committee, but don't see your chapter listed, please make sure to update your CIQ!

For more information on DEI at the society level, please review the DEI page at the society website: Diversity Equity and Inclusion in ASHRAE Here you will find links to various resources and updates at the society level. There are lists of current members of the board, recent accomplishments, DEI Insights, podcast, and other resources such as suggested reading.

Please reach out if you have any questions or suggestions for Region I DEI.
